

THE TRACES OF ISLAMIC CULTURAL HISTORY: ANALYZING THE CULTURAL VALUES THAT INSPIRE INDONESIAN MUSLIMS

Abdul Wahab Syakhrani *¹

STAI Rasyidiyah Khalidiyah Amuntai, Kal-Sel, Indonesia

aws.kandangan@gmail.com

Agus Fawait

STAI At-Taqwa Bondowoso, Jatim, Indonesia

agusfawait87@gmail.com

Zainol Hasan

Universitas Ibrahimy Situbondo, Indonesia

hasansideas02@gmail.com

Antono Damayanto

Universitas Jenderal Achmad Yani, Cimahi, Indonesia

antono@ymail.com

Heru Widoyo

Character Building Development Center, Computer Science Department, School of Computer Science, Bina Nusantara University, Jakarta, Indonesia

heru.widoyo@binus.ac.id

Abstract

The article "The Traces of Islamic Cultural History: Analyzing the Cultural Values that Inspire Indonesian Muslims" is an article that seeks to provide insight into the cultural values that inspire Indonesian Muslims and how these values are rooted in the history of Islam in Indonesia. It discusses the role of Islamic scholars, religious institutions, and cultural practices in shaping the development of Islamic values in Indonesia. It explores how local cultural traditions and practices have influenced the expression of Islam in Indonesia. The article argues that the cultural values that inspire Indonesian Muslims are shaped by the history of Islam in the region and by the interaction between Islamic traditions and local cultural practices. It also highlights the importance of studying the cultural values that inspire Indonesian Muslims better to understand the relationship between Islam and Indonesian culture. Overall, the article is a valuable contribution to studying Islamic culture in Indonesia, providing a detailed analysis of the cultural values that inspire Indonesian Muslims, and sheds light on the unique features of Indonesian Islam.

Keywords: Islamic cultural history, Traces, Analyzing, Cultural values, Indonesian Muslims, Inspiration, Muslims.

¹ Corresponding author.